

Lithuania

Conversation of this book to authors Rokas (5.5 years
old) parents how was created this book

Rokas doesn't like tales, because there is no action. He is not interested them and never ask to read them.

When pre-school teacher said that children of group will take part in project, where they need to tell tales, Rokas with father went to book-shop let himself choose tale „Cat and cock“.

Why the parents didn't know why this book turns him attention: this book wasn't colorful and some special.

When came back home they turn off all apparatus, which can hinder to reading book. Tale read twice. Rokas listen attentively.

Then Rokas did copy books cover using watercolor. Father wrote of book on the sheet and loudly named every letter. Rokas did copy all words on feature cover book.

Next book part Rokas and his father made for one day. When they finished this book Rokas was bored. Father again on sheet wrote words loudly named every letter and Rokas draw illustration and did copy all words.

When Rokas brings book to group, he often looks over and shows for friends of group.

"Cat and cock"

Once lived cat and cock.

Fox wheedled cock from shack. Was caught and took away to its hole.

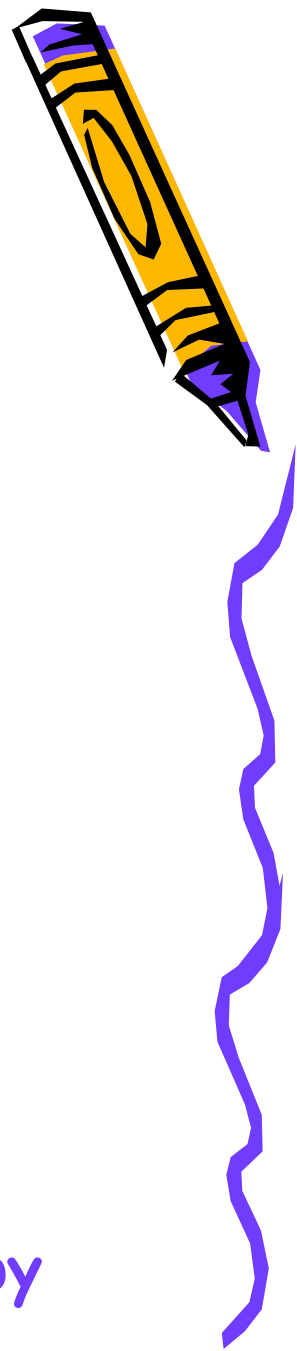

Came cat to save cock.

Was caught fox and thrust him into sack.

And farther lived for a long and happy time.