

Vieną kartą Ajuras atvyko į Klaipėdą.

Jis norėjo pamatyti sniegą. Bet sniego jis nematė.

Aplinkui žaliavo žolė ir lijo lietus.

Kur baltas sniegas, klausia Ajuras draugo Lino.

Linas stovėjo liūdnas, nes jam buvo nesmagu, kad sausio mėnesį Klaipėdoje nėra sniego.

Kad pajustų žiemos šaltį ir ledo slidumą, draugai nuvyko į ledo areną.

Tai bent smagumėlis, sušuko Ajuras.

Tokią pramogą draugui pažadėjo kiekvieną viešnagės dieną.

Po penkių dienų Ajuras čiuožė geriau negu Linas.

Paskutinį viešnagės rytą vaikai pro langą pamatė pilną kiemą sniego.

Linas, nieko nelaukdamas, čiupo roges ir slides.

Su Ajuru išbėgo į lauką. Vaikai tiek dūko, čiuožinėjo, slidinėjo, lipdė senį besmegenį.

Ajuras nebenorėjo išvykti.

Išplaukdamas Ajuras žadėjo sugrįžti – jam labai patiko žiemos žaidimai.

ONCE UPON TIME AJUR CAME TO KLAIPEDA.

HE WANTED TO SEE SNOW, BUT HE DIDN'T SEE THAT.

ALL OVER THERE WAS GREEN AND IT WAS RAINING.

“WHERE’S THE SNOW?”- AJUR ASKED HIS FRIEND LINAS.

LINAS WAS SAID. HE FELT UNCOMFORTABLE BECAUSE THERE WERE NO
SNOW IN THE MIDDLE OD JANUARY IN KLAIPEDA.

FRIENDS WENT TO THE ICE ARENA TO FEEL WINTER COLD AND ICE SLIPPERY.

“WHAT A PLEASURE!”-SHOUTED AJUR.

SUCH AMUSEMENT HE PROMISED TO MAKE EVERY DAY.

IN A FIVE DAYS AJUR SKATED BETTER THAN LINAS.

CHILDREN SAW THE YARD FULL OF SNOW THE LAST MORNING. LINAS
GRASPED SKIS AND SKATES .

LINAS AND AJURAS RAN OUTSIDE. THEY ROMPED, SKATED, WENT SKIING
AND MADE SNOW MAN.

AJUR DIDN'T WANT TO LEAVE. HE PROMISED TO COME BACK. HE LIKED
WINTER GAMES VERY MUCH.
